Distance: 13 miles,

Difficulty: (as rated by the US Forest Service)

Hiking - Difficult
Biking - Difficult
Equestrian - Moderate

Trailhead Parking: Limited

Access to Trail: From the Show Low Post Office, travel west on AZ 260 for 8.1 miles to Burton Road. Turn north and the trailhead is 1.1 miles ahead on the left.

Trail Highlights: The route follows portions of old logging roads through piñon juniper forest. Vista points offer panoramic views of the White Mountains, including Mount Baldy. The trail passes many tanks and provides ample opportunities for wildlife viewing. Javalina, mountain lion, and turkey are a few of the species seen in this area. This trail can be long, hot and dry during the summer. A portion of the trail sustained the fire damage during the Rodeo-Chediski fire of 2002 and presents a view of how the landscape changed in the years following this event.

This trail has coded white diamonds, approximately ¼ mile apart, which correspond to the codes on the map below. If you need to call 911 for an emergency, tell the 911 operator the code on the nearest white diamond so that emergency responders can more readily locate you.
